INTRODUCTION

Meet us in the desert.

We are pleased to welcome you to The Omni Tucson National Golf Resort and Spa in beautiful Tucson, Arizona this Pesach. This AAA 4 Diamond Resort features two Championship Golf Courses, four tennis courts, sand beach volleyball and pickleball courts, two pools, a luxury spa and fitness center, and many other state-of-the-art amenities – all within view of the picturesque Santa Catalina Mountains.

Drawing inspiration from the breathtaking Sonoran Desert, Omni Tucson National Resort stands as a tranquil haven, perfect for crafting unforgettable experiences. Recently refurbished guest rooms, comprising Hacienda and Casita suites, embody modern elegance and offer a serene ambiance for a rejuvenating stay.

Encompassing two distinct golf courses, the resort showcases the natural splendor of the region, with sweeping vistas of the majestic Santa Catalina Mountains and the indigenous desert flora. Boasting over 30,000 square feet of versatile meeting and event spaces, Omni Tucson National Resort provides the perfect backdrop for Pesach on the Mountain 2024.

Exceptional experiences begin the moment you arrive.

Blurring the boundaries between indoors and outdoors, the resort welcomes natural light and stunning vistas that seamlessly blend the modern design with the Spanish-style haciendas and traditional Southwest Adobe architecture.

Floor-to-ceiling windows grace every corner, offering breathtaking views of the mountain landscape. Expansive outdoor areas invite you to immerse yourself in the iconic cacti and expansive skies of the Sonoran Desert.

Whether indulging in championship golf, rejuvenating spa services, or basking in the sunshine at our two spacious pools, every moment at Omni Tucson National Resort promises enriching experiences.

Dr. Yoaz Hendel is an author, media professional, publicist, and public activist. Before joining politics, Dr. Hendel served as the Head of the Institute for Zionist Strategies and as a journalist. He also served in the IDF, including in the IDF's Naval Commando unit Shayetet 13 and earning the rank of Lieutenant Colonel as an officer in the IDF reserves.

He served as the Director of the National Public Diplomacy (Hasbara) Unit in the Prime Minister's Office from 2011-2012. From 2019-2023, Dr. Hendel served as Israel's Minister of Communications and was a member of Israel's Security Cabinet and Ministerial Committee for Legislation and a Member of Knesset and as Chairman of his Party (Derekh Eretz).

As of January 2023, Dr. Hendel has taken a break from politics, now serving as Director on the board of several private corporations as well as Chairperson and Partner in the management of non-profit organizations that assist at-risk youth and encourage higher enlistment in the IDF.

Dr. Hendel earned a Ph.D. in history from Tel Aviv University, is an expert in military history, and has lectured at Bar Ilan University.

Dr. Shiri Weinberg-Hendel is a highly experienced OBGYN specialist. She serves as a senior gynecologist at Assuta Ashdod Hospital, while also running a successful private practice in Modiin. Her passion lies in conducting minimal invasive intrauterine procedures such as "see and treat" procedures, as well as working in the delivery room.

Apart from her clinical work, Dr. Weinberg-Hendel is involved in clinical research, medical education, and serves as the director of the residency program in the Obstetrics and Gynecology department.

She graduated from Hadassah Medical School at The Hebrew University of Jerusalem in 2006 and completed her residency in the OB/GYN department at Shaare Zedek Medical Center, Jerusalem, where she worked as a senior physician specializing in obstetrics and hysteroscopy and colposcopy until 2017. In 2017, Dr. Weinberg-Hendel was recruited as part of the medical team that built the new OBGYN department at Assuta Ashdod Medical Center.

Dr. Weinberg-Hendel is married to Dr. Yoaz Hendel. Together, they have four children and live near Jerusalem.
